CBB EXTENSION APPLICATION

Revocation

The Certified Business Broker (CBB) designation of any member may be terminated by the Association's Board of Directors for the following reasons:

- 1) Failure to remain a current member in good standing with CABB.
- 2) Violation of the Association's bylaws and/or rules and regulations, or Code of Ethics.
- 3) Misrepresentation, either intentional or otherwise, of experience or other qualifications.
- 4) The rendering of a guilty verdict by a trier of fact of proper jurisdiction (court or arbitration) for charges which, in the opinion of the Association's Board of Directors, reasonably establish the CBB's noncompliance with those standards required by the CABB.

Any CBB whose designation is terminated shall immediately return his CBB certificate and any other related items (pins, plaques, etc.). In addition, his store of stationery and other renderings mentioning the CBB designation must be immediately destroyed. And, lastly, it is specifically understood that the member or former member may not verbally or in print make ANY reference to "former CBB," "past CBB," or the like.

Identification

Once your application is submitted, CABB will review your qualifications and contact you with the credentialing committees' decision. Individuals awarded the CBB designation shall receive a CBB certificate from CABB. The member may also include the designation by the initials "CBB" or the words "Certified Business Broker" on his business cards, seals, brochures, letterhead, and other promotional materials.
